LANHAI CHINA STUDY PROGRAM

Program Description

Study tours to China is considered as an important component of Study Abroad program and also, Liberal Art programs at universities for the purpose of providing students with the face-to-face encounter with Chinese people and with the Chinese developmental experience.

Daily Mandarin lessons, lectures by professors at Chinese universities, visits to state-owned enterprises, farms and government organizations, tours to the most significant historical monuments in Beijing and Xi'an, are all part of the study tour schedule. Through this intensive study program, students will be able to gain an insight into Chinese history, culture, society, challenges and opportunities and reflect upon the prospects of China's economic development in the context of economic globalization.

During this time, Shanghai Expo is in session, therefore students will also participate in this once 100 year Expo activities

University Study Certification will be provided on successful completion of the program.
